June 2021 Newsletter, Volume 158

Published: Sun 04 Jul 2021 12:26PM EDT Comments: 5

Elections is happy to announce that this year's Board of Directors election will be contested, with 4 declared candidates running for 2 open seats. Bios and platforms for all 4 candidates are now available at the Elections website with Q&A responses forthcoming. Bios and platforms have been translated by Translation into 21 languages, while news posts regarding the election are being translated into 26 languages. The election will take place August 13th - 16th, and anyone who became an OTW member by June 30th is eligible to vote! To ensure that everyone interested in voting is eligible to do so, Development & Membership ran a mini membership drive from June 24th - 27th advertising the election and the requirement to become a member in order to vote.

AO3 Statistics 2020: An Update

Published: Mon 28 Jun 2021 12:06PM EDT Comments: 89

In May of last year, we posted a look at the Archive's traffic numbers, which had increased rather dramatically early in the year (most likely for pandemic-related reasons). We now have the numbers for the whole year and can confirm that yes, people sure did consume a lot of fanworks in 2020! We can also provide a brief update on traffic numbers for the first quarter of 2021.
